Like a Stetson for a Sunday dinner, 'Casa de los Sueños' is made to display a gentlemanly elegance that is both sturdy and charismatic. Cemented into the determinedly picturesque hills of Playa Hermosa this ponderosa-inspired abode overlooks every aspect of spacious wonder that could be laid at one's feet.

Searched the world over, every material inlaid into this indomitable masterpiece has been handpicked and imported for durability and elegance; from the travertine encasement of the spa baths to the almond wood floors that run the length of every napping spot. The spacious indoor 360 square meters, encompass all aspects of modern living and downhome indulgences. The fully equipped smart home invisibly bounces around the accents of hardwood and softened leather furniture. 200 additional meters of impeccable stone terraces, a sunken kitchen area, and serene pool sits just beyond the floor to ceiling glass: the perfect place to entertain friends or enjoy sunset meditation with a highball in hand. Of the three bedrooms, two master suites, palatial alone, open to private and finely appointed verandas that develop a sense unimaginable vast frontiers ahead. Built with the intention to accommodate the most discerning travelers, 'Casa de los Sueños', is true turn-key with a well-established client list, marketing prepared and history of profitable returns; both casual and seasoned investors will see this property as a worthwhile decision.
